1. What about Jonah do you relate most to so far?
2. Thinking about getting a tattoo yet? Or a new tattoo?

Core:

1. Has there been a time in your life when you ran the opposite direction from where you knew you should go? Was there a moment when you had to cry out to be saved?
2. What are some of the worthless things we chase after which pull us away from God?
3. What is it about God's character that causes him to offer second chances when he has every right to punish us?
4. When you look at the circumstances of your life, do they make you "uniquely qualified" to speak into the lives of others? In what way?
5. Why do you think church people are often tempted to present a sanitized view of their lives or leave out the messy stories?
6. How would you define the phrase "Me Too" if someone asked you what it meant?
7. Has God ever brought anyone into your life who was able to share their story and use their mistakes to help you?
8. What does it mean to your life to know that Jesus was tempted in all the same ways and with all the same things that we are?
9. Do you believe God offers second chances? Have you had an experience in your life where you knew God was offering a second chance?
10. Read Romans 8:28 again. What are the "ALL things" in your life? Is there anything that God cannot use for His purposes? Do you believe God can and will work those things for good?

Challenge:

1. Look at what you've experienced in your life and let God show you how you're "uniquely qualified" to speak into someone else's life.
2. If you're really struggling in a specific area and need someone to walk through that with you, consider checking out Shift this Friday night.
